Kia ora Parents, Children and Whānau

I pēhea tō hararei? - how was your holiday? It is great to be back at school and after a rainy couple of weeks the sun was shining brightly yesterday! As always when the term begins the playground comes alive as children come into school on the first morning back. They bring in their happy voices, laughing, chatting and give the school a wonderful energy!

Speaking of energy..... Weren't our amazing Silver Ferns awesome? Winning the world Championships against the Aussie doesn't get much better! The messages around relationships, team culture, grit and determination, hard work, belief and battling through tough times helped the girls pull through when it mattered. Great life lessons for our children! As our captain Laura Langman said "Tumeke!"

New Students

Welcome back to Kyran and Camea and welcome to Kyra, Rebecca, Joshua and Ethan who all started on Monday!

Does Your Child Suffer Anxiety at School?

As part of our Inquiry this year, we are looking into the anxiety of children in school. Parents, as you know your child better than anyone, it would be great to gain an insight into how parents cope at home and what we could do better at school to minimize anxiety. Come along for a Cuppa and a Chat with Craig, Linnie & Diane - Term 3, Tuesday 30th July after Hui in the staffroom.

Library News

Our library is now open on Thursday and Fridays after school until 4pm. Mrs Milmine has trained up some wonderful volunteers who will keep the library running. It was a quiet start to this new initiative last term so we're hoping that more children will pop into the library after school.

- We have increased the borrowing limits to further encourage children to get stuck into more reading. The new book borrowing limits are as follows: Yr 1-2, 2 books; Yr 3-4, 3 books; Yr 5-6, 4 books and Yr 7-8, 5 books. An upper limit of 10 books exists for avid readers and is on a case by case basis. Exciting stuff!

Band and Ukes

Well done to our young musicians who blasted out a couple of numbers at our final assembly last term? You guys rocked and I'm looking forward to your next performance!

Thanks to Mrs Pearson, Mr Brunton and Mr Milmine for coordinating our music items.

Remember to use the school crossing.
